Biography of Gladys Margaret Johnson Hopkins:

Gladys Margaret Johnson was born on November 30, 1908 to R. Guy and Alta Pearl (Vanocker) Johnson in Weld County, Colorado. She attended the public schools in Greeley, graduating from Greeley High School. She received a bachelor's degree in History and Political Science in 1930 from Colorado State Teachers College and a master's degree in Secondary Education in 1939, from Colorado State College of Education. In addition, she attended the University of Missouri and Colorado State University.

While an undergraduate at the college, Gladys Johnson participated in many student organizations including Pi Kappa Sigma, President; Dickerson Club, Treasurer; Pan Hellenic, President; Pedagogue Pilots; and the Cache La Poudre Staff. She was chosen Junior Prom Queen in 1929.

Gladys Margaret Johnson married R. Price Hopkins on December 21, 1930. They lived in St. Joseph and St. Louis, Missouri and moved back to Greeley in 1938. Her husband became assistant director of public relations at the college while she served as the director of Gordon Hall. When the first Student Union was built, they served as directors.

She taught at the Laboratory School and Heath Junior High School and was a counselor at Meeker Junior High School as well as a counselor and assistant principal at John Evans Junior High School. She retired from the Greeley schools in 1974.

Gladys Hopkins was also active in local organizations including PEO, Greeley Assistance League, Delta Kappa Gamma, and the First Congregational Church.
