Moinat Colorado Clippings

The clippings were collected by Marie Moinat, Coordinator, Laboratory School Library, UNC. Mrs. Moinat was affiliated with the university from 1974-80. She began as Instructor in Laboratory School in 1974 and was the Coordinator, Laboratory School Library at the time of her retirement in 1980. For more information on Marie Moinat, see: Faculty--Clippings File (RG6 S7 F1).

The clippings were used for information and as teaching aids. They were received in small individual boxes and are filed according to that provenance in chronological order as much as possible. Not all articles and photographs have dates; dates are given for those that do. A general description of the contents of each box is listed below.
