This collection contains the "accumulated papers, pamphlets, minutes, proposed laws, etc. on the migrants from the years 1958-1960's.

It details the efforts in Weld County in starting the schools – summer – for children of migrants, so they could make up schooling lost by their parent's itinerant life.

It includes efforts of the Colorado Council of Church Women to help children learn basic skills in crafts and sanitation in week long summer day camps at Island Grove Park together with the Girl Scout organization."
