

Mari Michener Gallery Non-Library Use Policy
James A. Michener Library
University of Northern Colorado
(Effective August 1998)

The purpose of the Mari Michener Gallery is to provide UNC students and the general community with exposure to local, regional, and national artists and to various forms of artistic expression. The gallery is managed jointly by the University Libraries Administration and the Friends of the University of Northern Colorado Libraries.

Many requests are received from on-campus organizations and external agencies for use of the Mari Michener Gallery. Requests are primarily for exhibit space and/or reception purposes. Because of the demand for this space, the University Libraries has limited non-library use of the gallery to periods of time when classes are not in session. We simply cannot disturb student research by creating distractions and interrupting valuable interaction among students, faculty and library personnel.

All decisions and exceptions are the responsibility of the Dean of University Libraries.
